

Figure 5 - Bifurcation diagram showing that the rate of bifurcation accelerates with increasing 'r'. This is known as the Feigenbaum ratio. The period doubling comes at a constant rate given by the delta constant: 4.66921166091029 etc.

