

BIGGS EARTH SCIENCE TEACHING AWARD NOMINATION FORM

Nominee _____ E-mail Address _____

College/University Attended _____ Degree(s) _____

College/University Attended _____ Degree(s) _____

Current Academic Institution _____

Address _____

Number of Earth Science Classes Taught/Year _____ Graduate _____ Undergraduate _____

Name of Department Chair _____

Guidelines:

1. 2-4 letters of support, in addition to the nominator's letter.
2. 3-5 letters of support from past and/or current students.
3. Nominating letter (maximum 6 single-spaced pages) should address each of the following:
 - Teaching Ability: What teaching and assessment techniques does this teacher employ? Is the course comprehensive, yet enjoyed by the students? What is the teaching philosophy?
 - Inventiveness: What new ideas are used? What new curriculum and support materials are produced? What new methods or devices are used?
 - Initiative: How are new situations handled? How are students of varying abilities accommodated?
 - Cooperation: How does the teacher cooperate in the total school program and in other academic areas?
 - Community and youth activities: How is the teacher involved in community and youth activities?
 - Professional activities: Publications, advising, program development.
 - Summary: as to the candidate's strengths and noteworthy accomplishments as they relate to the nomination for the teaching award.
4. Nominee should be involved in the nomination by supplying:
 - a. A one-page teaching philosophy
 - b. A 2-page CV (similar to an NSF biographical sketch)
 - c. Examples of teaching materials or methods, and evidence of teaching effectiveness and improved student learning (for example, descriptions of lessons or exercises, summaries of numerical and/or written student comments from teaching evaluations, peer teaching evaluations; limit of 10 pages).

Name of Nominator _____

E-mail address _____

Address _____

Signature of Nominator _____

Please check here if this is a resubmission _____ If yes, which year was the nomination originally made? _____

Send all forms with documentation to:

Please feel free to copy this form for nomination purposes.

Nominations due 1 February 2012

Submit nominations to <http://gsaged.org/biggsaward/award2010.htm> . Any supplemental materials should be sent to Elizabeth A. Heise, ehaise@uclalumni.net